

Sticky Knowledge - Geography

Class – Redwoods

Year 6

North America

Autumn 1

- Where is North America and what countries are in it?
- Can you name the biomes of North America and describe the different climate zones?
- Which mountains and rivers of North America can you name?
- Can you locate North America on a globe and use an atlas to find the countries of North America?

Rivers and Mountains

Spring 1

- Can you understand how to use a key on an Ordnance Survey map, identifying symbols and locating them using 4 and 6 figure grid references?
- Can you label the eight points of a compass?
- What are the highest mountains in England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland?
- How are mountains formed?
- Can you describe the different sections of a river from the source to the mouth?

Local Environment Study

Summer Term

- How is the land used in Ripponden?
- Can you sketch a map of the local area?
- How have you used fieldwork to find out more about your local environment?